JMA Interior Design

At JMA Interior Design, every project begins with a meaningful connection. Founded by award-winning designer Jackie Armour, the firm is grounded in trust, collaboration, and a nuanced understanding of how people truly live. With a signature style that blends bold creativity with timeless elegance, JMA crafts spaces that are uniquely personal and effortlessly enduring.

For over 20 years, JMA Interior Design has brought transformative vision to homes across Florida, the Eastern Seaboard, New England, and the Mountain West. Armour's fearless use of color and pattern, along with her masterful attention to flow and proportion, creates interiors that are layered, expressive, and perfectly tailored to each client.

From grand waterfront estates to intimate retreats, JMA crafts homes that feel as good as they look—livable spaces rich with architectural detail, curated furnishings, and thoughtful design. The firm is involved from concept to completion, working closely with clients, architects, builders, and contractors to ensure flawless execution.

If you're seeking a home that captures your spirit and elevates your everyday life, JMA Interior Design invites you to discover the power of livable luxury—and begin the journey of bringing your vision to life.
